Hi Frank

Yes they are extending the 1% loan program. There are some interesting programs out there. If the Town decides to acquire AVR there might be a few ways to finance it that might not have been considered.

Thanks for thinking of us!

Logan,

You are probably already aware of this, but I wanted to share this notice I received this morning.

State Water Resources Control Board (Drought Funding Act)

Deadline: December 2, 2014

Amount: $800 million allocated

http://www.swrcb.ca.gov/press\_room/press\_releases/2014/pr031914.pdf

The State Water Resources Control Board (State Water Board) this week approved new low-interest financing terms for water recycling projects to help California produce an additional 150,000 acre-feet of recycled water annually, one of several actions Governor Brown called for in his Drought State of Emergency.
